A college that has its students devote one-half their time to actual, useful work is so in line with common sense that we are amazed that the idea had to be put in execution by an ex-slave as a life-saver for his disenfranchised race. Our great discoveries are always accidents: we work for one thing and get another. I expect that the day will come, and ere long, when the great universities of the world will have to put the Tuskegee Idea into execution in order to save themselves from being distanced by the Colored Race.—Elbert Hubbard in "A Little Journey to Tuskegee."

Perhaps there is a deserving young man or woman in your community who needs A CHANCE.

If so, perhaps Tuskegee Institute offers the very opportunity which he wants.

Three Valuable Books for You

A Century of Negro Migration

By DR. CARTER G. WOODSON

This is the first effort to trace the movements which have during the last century set the Negro population moving from the South to the North. Every phase of Negro life and history having a bearing on this neglected field has been adequately treated. Why the Negroes have gone, where they have settled and what they are doing are all carefully explained.

The Education of the Negro Prior to 1861

By DR. CARTER G. WOODSON

This book is unique in that it is the first attempt to write an account of the efforts put forth to enlighten the Negroes during the days of slavery. It is constantly referred to as an authority constituting a new page in the history of the black man. This is one of the few books treating Negro history scientifically.

Slavery in Kentucky

By DR. IVAN E. McDOUGLE

Fellow in History, Clark University

This is an attempt to give a connected and concise account of the institution of slavery as it existed in the State of Kentucky from 1792 to 1865. In this study the chief emphasis has been placed on the legal, economic and social history of slavery in Kentucky. Mention of the antislavery struggle is also made.

“There is a tide in the affairs of men which, taken at its flood, leads on to fortune.”

OUR MODERN METHODS ENABLE students to become competent stenographers in about thirty days of study.

BE CONSISTENT. Shorthand was invented to save time; start well by saving time in learning it.

WE SAVE YOU HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS, because the cost of our course is much less than that charged by other colleges and we have you in a position many months sooner. Also, you are able to earn a larger salary, because the simplicity of our methods enables you to do better and faster work.

Our Stenographic Course includes Shorthand, Typewriting, Spelling, Punctuation, and Business Correspondence, etc. It is complete in every detail and enables the student to secure and hold any position which the average graduate is capable of filling, and in many cases difficult positions that would necessitate years of experience by students of the old-fashioned methods.

We keep a permanent equipment of the very latest models of typewriters for use of students in attendance, as we fully realize that skill in typewriting is the visible evidence of the stenographer's ability.
